We Understand.

Everyone else looks at you strange when you wear spandex or cry while re-reading Deathly Hallows for the Hundredth time but we understand that passion, because we ARE the ones wearing spandex and crying to Deathly Hallows but you need not cry (or wear) in solitude You know ALL those Instagram followers you have, all those Tumblr blogs you love, and all those other websites you love to visit every single day? FandomBrain allows you to connect to all of them AT THE SAME TIME and Interact with them. It's the thing you've been dreaming of: Everything you love in one place! We love the Internet Just as much as you do. We are powered by people, passion, and fandom. Go ahead

Connect to What YOU Love.

What is FandomBrain?

FandomBrain is a website dedicated to enhancing your online experience. Created by people who love the internet just as much as you do, FandomBrain makes your online experience easier and more comfortable. With FandomBrain you will be able to access all your favorite websites, blogs, and social media accounts in one tab. It is a revolutionary web app that offers you the best possible online experience.

At FandomBrain we are committed to providing you with the best possible online experience. This is accomplished through our many different 'user specific' tools and design that makes using the site not only fun and inviting, but simplistic and easy.

FandomBrain also acts as a social media website. While on FandomBrain you can do research and interact with people that like the same things as you. It also goes one step further and allows you to share fan created content. By using FandomBrain you have the unique opportunity to interact and communicate with people just like you.

FandomBrain is an exciting and new online experience that takes the best of the internet and puts into one, easy to use, and simply designed tab.

How does
FandomBrain
Work?

FandomBrain is very simple to use.

When first creating your account you will be able to select your favorite websites and log into your social media accounts. From then on out your selections will create your feed. These settings can be changed at any point in time.

The feed is an endless flow of articles, posts, videos, and links from all of your favorite websites and social media accounts. The feed will be the first thing users will see upon logging into their account and by using the top dashboard users can access hubs, other users, their account, and search for content.

For now these are the main features of FandomBrain, but we will be adding more in the future.
